coverstory Joe Mantegna (left) and Rick Glassman star in "As We See It," which begins streaming Friday on Amazon.

Joe Mantegna helps portray autism 'As We See It' in Amazon series

After his long run on "Criminal Minds," Joe Mantegna's new series is quite a switch for him ... and he brings part of his own family background to it.

A parent of an autistic daughter, the Tony Award-winning actor also addresses the subject in "As We See It," Amazon's adaptation of an Israeili drama series that begins streaming Friday, Jan, 21. Mantegna portrays the father of Jack (Rick Glassman), one of several young-adult roommates on the autism spectrum who are supported by their families and each other. Albert Rutecki and Sue Ann Pien play the other members of the central trio, with Sosie Bacon (daughter of Kevin Bacon and Kyra Sedgwick) as their main aide.

"I've been involved in it since its inception," Mantegna says of the show developed by Emmy-winning executive producer Jason Katims ("Friday Night Lights," "Parenthood"). "They came to me shortly after 'Criminal Minds' stopped, and when I read the (pilot) script, I was really knocked out by it ... for a lot of reasons. Jason is such a wonderful, beautiful writer, and it had a very personal impact on me."

Mantegna isn't sure whether his eldest daughter Gia's condition was known to Katims. "I never asked," he reveals. "Jason might have thought that might be an interesting layer, but I know that it's also a personal thing for him. They really thought it out to the point where, besides that the three main actors were identified as being on the autism spectrum, they were going to hire 12 (autistic) people on the crew – which is really unheard of. You have to go through the unions and all that, and they did that. I hope it's a sign of the times, in terms of where we're going with inclusion."

In "As We See It," Mantegna's character Lou faces a health challenge of his own. "My watchword for a good part of my life has been, 'Everybody's got a story, and nobody gets a free ride,' " reflects Mantegna. "To me, this is an example of that. Each of us has a personal story, and some of those are things we would not have chosen. And so be it."

Gia Mantegna is a makeup artist who almost ended up working on "As We See It" along with her father, but ultimately didn't. However, her dad has enjoyed acting with Glassman as his on-screen son, deeming him "a wonderful young man. Most people in the world would think of him as just a smart, sunny, quirky guy, yet being sensitive to that world, I could tell there's a reason for that quirkiness. He's a stand-up comic, so he has those certain savant abilities, just like my daughter has."

DISCOVER FLORIDA'S FIRST LIGHTHOUSE

In 1875, Major William A. Harn became Head Keeper of the St. Augustine Lighthouse. Keeper Harn and his wife Kate, along with their daughters, became the first residents of the Keepers' House. Life at a light station was busy, and everyone would help tend to the light and grounds. One aspect of this was to greet and entertain visitors. The Harn children loved hearing stories from the outside world as Kate served lemonade on the porch of the Keepers' House.

The Harn family lived and worked at the light station from 1876 until 1889. After William's passing, Kate served as the Second Assistant before moving the family into town and later returning home to Maine. The photograph above was taken at the Harn family home in Maine during the 1920s. Among those pictured are Kate and five of her six daughters.

Australia's Barty seeks first title in Melbourne

She's a two-time Grand Slam champ and has been World No. 1 for more than 100 weeks. But an Australian Open singles title has persistently eluded this native daughter.

Ashleigh Barty, this is your time.

As the tennis year's first major kicks off Sunday, Jan. 16, and airs on ESPN and ESPN2, the 25-year-old product of Ipswich on the continent's east coast sits at the top of the ladies rankings thanks to a stellar 2021 season in which she ran up a 42-8 record with five WTA titles, including her second Slam at Wimbledon.

At Melbourne, she's reached at least the quarterfinals the past three years with a semifinal appearance in 2020. She appeared on her way to a title last year when she opened her quarterfinal match in dominant fashion by drubbing Karolina Muchova in the first set 6-2. She was up 2-1 in the second when Muchova used an injury time out to regain her bearings.

When play resumed 10 minutes later, the Czech looked like a completely different player, reeling off 11 of the next 15 games to win 1-6, 6-3, 6-2 and sending Barty packing and out of her home Slam. Muchova would then go on to lose in the semifinal to Jennifer Brady, who herself would fall to eventual champ Naomi Osaka in the final.

Barty is only the second Australian woman to be World No. 1 after Evonne Goolagong Cawley. If she wins this year's tournament, she'd cement that laurel and be the first Aussie woman since Christine O'Neil in 1978 to take the title at Melbourne.

It's time to travel on your stomach with Food Network and Cooking Channel

Welcome to the middle of January, a time of year when the Christmas bills are coming due and cabin fever is beginning to set in.

The instinct is to go far, far away – preferably to somewhere warm – but in the age of the pandemic that may prove difficult, if not unhealthy. So it might be safer to live vicariously through the foodies on Cooking Channel and Food Network, who will not only show you cool places but where you can get a great meal.

Andrew Zimmern certainly has the right idea in the Monday, Jan. 17, episode of Cooking's "The Zimmern List," in which he stops in San Diego, an oftenoverlooked culinary destination, to grab a bite of seafood in Little Italy, sample some authentic Mexican in Barrio Logan and feast on everybody's newest favorite fast food, fried chicken.

A quick hop halfway across the Pacific is Guy Fieri, who in the Friday, Jan. 21, episode of "Guy! Hawaiian Style" on Food Network has a busy agenda on tap for his family that includes spearfishing, catching prawns and a visit to Pearl Harbor to prepare a Mexican lunch for troops as a "mahalo" for their service.

If sheer volume is your thing, Casey Webb might have what you seek on Cooking's "Man v. Food" on Tuesday, Jan. 18, which finds him in Virginia Beach chowing down on a street corn snack-turned-burger, a decadent croissantmuffin hybrid and the vaunted corned beef omelet challenge involving a dozen eggs. Calorie counters, you have been forewarned.

Up the East Coast in Philadelphia, Robert Irvine is checking out some of the comfort foods the City of Brotherly Love has to offer in the Sunday, Jan. 16, edition of Cooking's "Cheat Day." The day starts with a stop at the city's oldest Irish pub for meatloaf and mashed potatoes stacked high with fish and chips. Then it's off to Stamford, Conn., for chocolate-hazelnut peanut butter cup French toast and San Antonio for crispy pata and sisig made from pork and spices.

And if you're looking for more exotic fare, turn it to Cooking on Monday for "Bizarre Foods: Delicious Destinations," which brings host Zimmern to Stockholm to sample herring and traditional Swedish fare such as pea soup and pancakes and cinnamon rolls topped with crunchy pearl sugar. There is also a dish known as "Jansson's temptation," a creamy potato and anchovy casserole that is said to be named for early-1900s Swedish opera singer Pelle Janzon, a renowned gourmet.
